What's "in" for 1968?

Why, it's gossip, it's lectures, it's announcements, and during those few moments of silence now and then at L.H.S., it's scribbled thoughts, or meaningful glances on sometimes excited, sometimes tranquil, and sometimes doleful faces.

The eager eyes of Lincolmites scrutinize favorite films,
formerly furry felines,
transient test tubes, tedious texts, and teacher's scrawling script.

Sweet reverberations of chaotic chatter,
shrieking screams, belligerent bells,
emitting earphones, and mellow melodies sound through the hallowed halls.

And then there are those feelings that no word spoken, no word written, no word contemplated can convey . . . a teacher's understanding, a pair of appendages acquiring skills vital to future professions, the feel of another's pulse, but forever, the unvarying feel of the aura beaming, radiating from another human being.

The purpose of Student Council is to give the students of Lincoln an opportunity to participate in school control under the guidance of their advisor; to achieve closer cooperation between students and faculty; to advocate law and order; and to promote the general welfare and success of the student body.

This year Student Council sent three of its officers, Janet Weir, Dave Kent, and Kim Calvo to Ohio Northern for the Student Council Workshop. A Get-Acquainted dance was held to start the school year. The annual Lincoln Operating Contest was held to spare the environment. Student Council sponsored the Viet Nam project for the year. Fourteen boxes were sent to the states for their Christmas celebration. A donation was also made to the Children's Hospital. The Student Council, represented by Dave Kent, Janet Weir, and Jean Voltz, presented the Apple Creek State Hospital with a 100 dollar check and four boxes of gifts. The big event was the All-School Sports Prom which was held in March.

Serving on Lincoln's Student Council is an experience in working government and citizenship. Each representative did his part to make Lincoln High School a place of which the student body was proud.

National Honor Society is an honorary scholarship organization for high school students. The creed of the society, Character, scholarship, leadership, service, exemplifies its high ideals.

A student may qualify for National Honor either in his junior or senior year. A senior must be in the top fifteen percent of his class. A candidate must also meet other requirements such as the approval of the faculty, participation in extracurricular activities, and an excellent citizenship record.

This year Lincoln Chapter 350 was proud to induct 31 seniors and 17 juniors into the National Honor Society, which is perhaps the highest honor a student can achieve. Inducted in their junior year were: Gary Redula, John Norretto, Eane Pennington, Sheryl Shacke, Heather Nixon, Heather Ann Beatty, David C. Miller, Darcy Hahn, Eric Blumens, Alice Gruber, Jennifer Morrison, Linda Sue Bryant, and Michael Cain.

Dale Wernock ... assembly

The Linion League, a non-credit organization for boys who possess outstanding scholastic and citizenship records, is open for membership to any boy who has had a 3.0 average for his first five semesters, has participated in at least one school activity each year, and has excelled in citizenship qualities. A student with these qualifications must also have obtained the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the league's members.

The Linion League's activities included the annual Thanksgiving and Easter assemblies, the annual decorating of the Christmas tree with the Alexis League, and the induction of new members in the spring.

The members of the Alexis League, Lincoln's oldest honor society, look to the past with pride and to the future with hopes of ever-increasing service to their school and the community.

The top-ranking girls in the junior class are inducted in the spring of each year, and, under the guidance of Miss Gatchel, step into their roles immediately as they usher at senior graduating programs.

It is the duty of members to usher at all school events, talk to incoming freshmen on visitation days, help decorate the Christmas tree in the lobby, and hold an annual banquet.

The 1967-1968 members found their membership a truly rewarding experience, as all have in the past and unquestionably will in the future.

The Lincoln Student Library Staff is students who are willing to devote time during and after school to work in the library.

The Student Library Staff has two purposes: to help the library and to become acquainted with the work of the library. The student librarians help with shelving, renewing books, writing overdue notices, collecting fines, checking library, and attending attendance slips to study books and new books.

The advisor to the library staff was Miss Margaret A. Head Librarian.

There is sweet music here that softer falls than petals from blown roses on the grass. More tender than descender on the spirit's ear, than friend's bare and unadorned eye. More than that brings sweet sleep down from the eye-lids, sweeter

Finian's Rainbow

In following with the fine tradition of OKLAHOMA, THE KING AND I, and THE SOUND OF MUSIC, the Lincoln A Cappella Choir scored another tremendous success with FINIAN'S RAINBOW.

Six short, yet seemingly endless weeks of rehearsals preceded the actual performances. The many hours spent memorizing lines, repeating dance steps, perfecting an Irish brogue or a Southern accent, and working on interpretation gave way to the delightful effect of leprechauns in green suits entwined with a magic crock of gold and an old Irish gentleman full of Blarney. It was a thrill to see the audience stirred to a standing ovation on closing night.

After the leprechauns and Southern senators had disappeared from the halls of Lincoln High School, one was surprised how quickly the lines, dance routines, and song lyrics faded away. Yet there remained a "warmish, kind of glowish, kind of peculiarish sensation" in all of our hearts, not to mention the rainbow that never fails to come up when the Lincoln choir remembers FINIAN'S RAINBOW.

The Mystery Ball was one of the big events of the year.

Radio Broadcasting

Each morning after the homeroom bell rings, you will hear religious music, the reading of the Bible, and then the reading of the announcements. The people who render this service are members of Radio Broadcasting.

One of the major purposes of Radio Broadcasting is to inform the student body of important announcements and upcoming events. The Radio Broadcasting services are used literally by every organization in the school.

Many of the students in the club are members of N.F.L. They use Radio Broadcasting as a practice for better speaking.

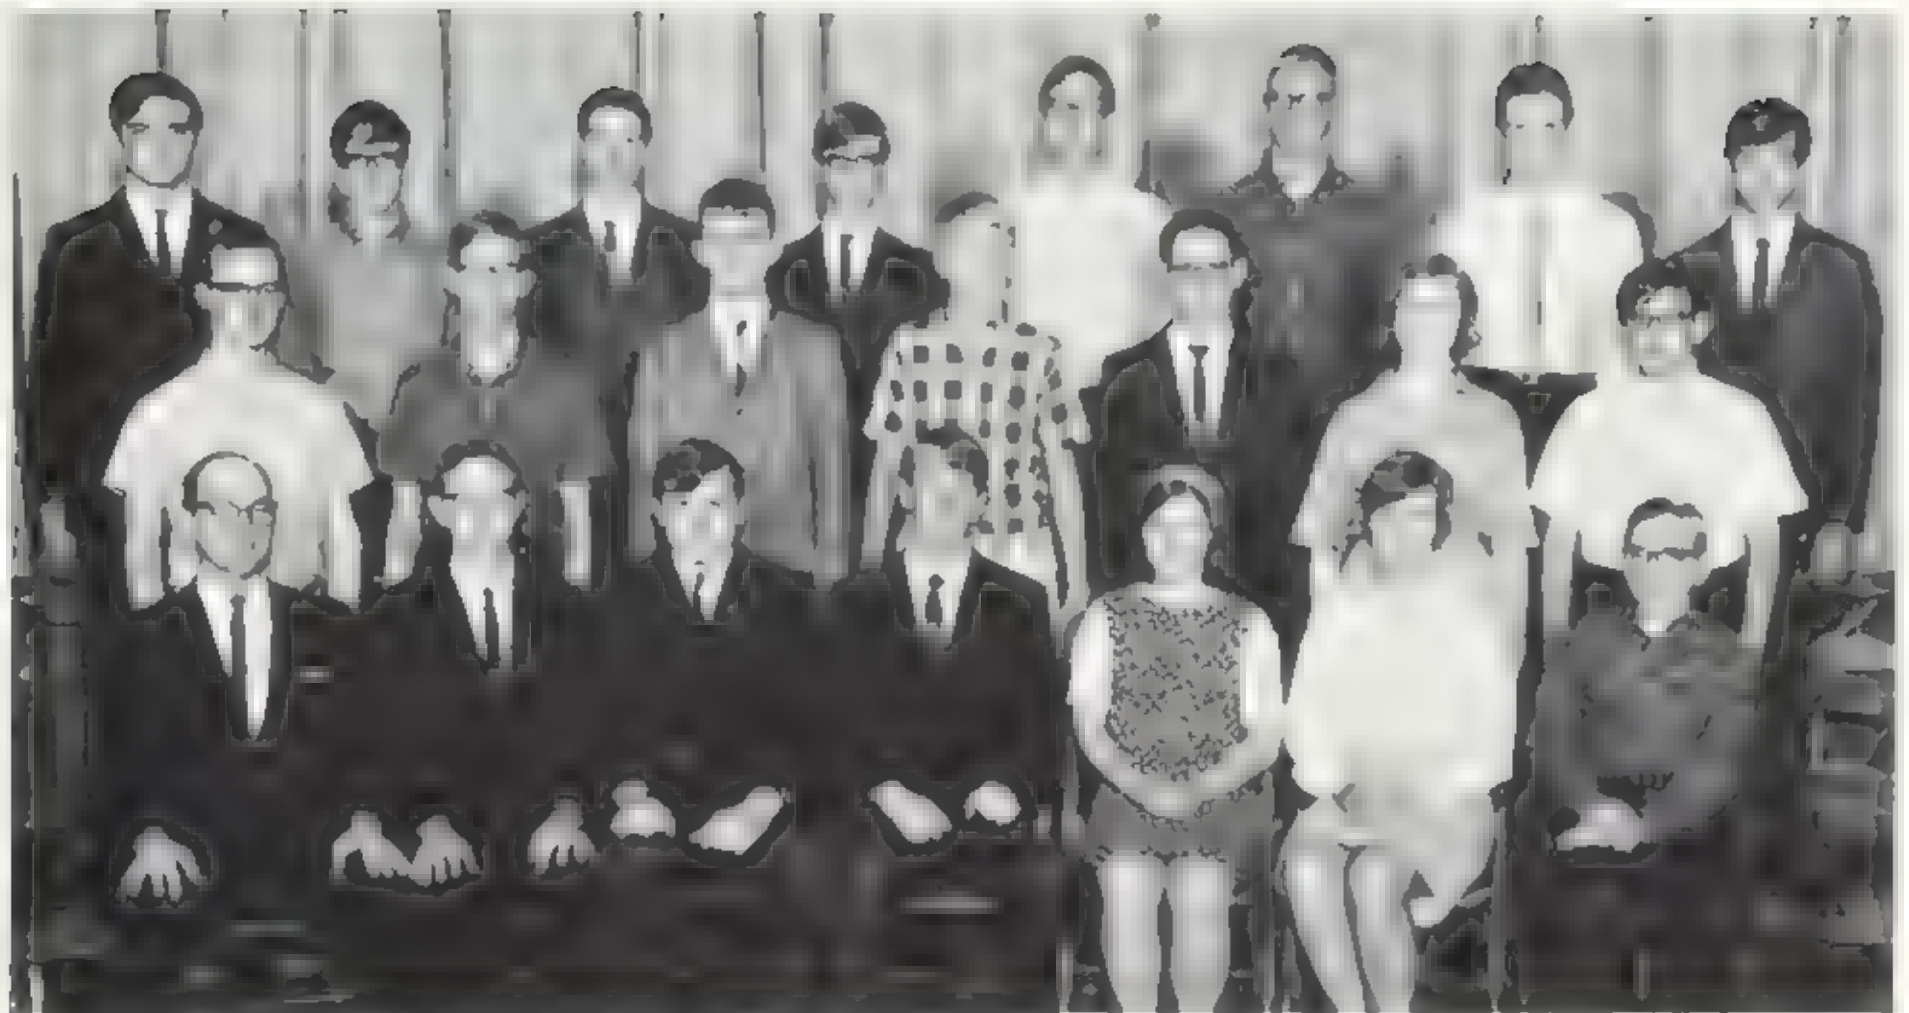

Starting this year, tryouts will be held in the spring for those interested in Radio Broadcasting. Mr. Dennis Sanders, the advisor, looks for students with the ability to read clearly and fluently, students who are able to think while they are reading and those students who desire to do a much needed service for the school.

The purpose of the Chess Club is to stimulate an interest in chess and to form new friendships. The Chess Club is a long-standing organization at Lincoln. Since its beginning its members have fostered a growing interest in the club by having intramural and interscholastic tournaments. In the interscholastic events, players are matched against opponents of equal skill from other schools. The intramural tournaments are held the same way as the other intramural basketball games. Players draw numbers to see who they play first and then they will either advance or be eliminated depending upon whether they win or lose. An award is given to the winner of the tournament.

The Chess Club not only develops a person's skill at the game but also increases patience and sportsmanship.

No curtain hid the wall or the sides of the stage. A tall ladder and a light stand in the back of the stage. The main curtain closed only once at the very end of the play. As the play began nothing hid on the stage but a few scattered platform. But through the magic of imagination that platform formed a stage, a few faces, and a plan can be borrowed from the orchestra pit becomes Grayson Corner. N. H. Our Town.

The audience arrived at breakfast time in Grayson Corners and were carried through the entire play in the lives of the good people of the town. The second act concerned the love and marriage of George and Emily and thus culminated in a happy ending.

The third act led to the cemetery on the hill where many of the townspeople were patiently awaiting greater understanding into their might. Emily wished to go back to the hill again with her memories. But she was shown how far it was to return.

The curtain closed as she returned to her grave, and as the clock struck eleven remained on a stage bare except for several platform scattered across the floor.

Every morning at 8:00 the job of putting together an annual gets underway in 301A and the Projection Room. With all desks piled high with triplicates and carbons, rough draft copies, contacts of pictures, advertising contacts and all of the other paraphernalia that goes into the make-up of an annual it is a wonder that finally some order can be brought out of this chaos.

But by hard work and many extra hours spent outside school hours, all of the deadlines were met by the staffs. THE LIONIAN, we present to you, is a pictorial history of Lincoln High School of 1967-68 for you to treasure and to refer to many times in the future.

Mrs. A. Scott, Editor, preparing to start the annual.

SPORTS

The ranks of Lincoln's cheerleaders, now filled by six girls from the sophomore, junior and senior classes are as indispensable a part of Lincoln's athletic games as the team members themselves. Much of the girls' spare time is spent preparing new cheers and skits for pep assemblies and games—an extracurricular activity made evident by their skill and ability. While their cheers are always an entertaining part of every game, perhaps their most important duty is to encourage the fans to cheer for the team and spur the boys on to victory.

Majorettes

The Lincoln High majorettes for the 1967-68 season were chosen at tryouts held at the close of the 1967 school year. They rehearsed and sometimes twice a week for the entire summer and football season under the direction of Signe Levy Vander who donated her time to prepare single and double baton routines plus dance routines for those days. The girls performed their routines with precision at all of the Lincoln football games and parades along with the Lincoln Marching Band. Leading the group this season was head Majorette Linda Crocker, who displayed attention to detail, twirling not only one and two batons but also three which was something entirely new to the Lincoln girls. The girls are convinced there is a great desire to being a majorette than just receiving the title. However, the personal thrill of a job well done is well worth every minute of hard work devoted to the task.

SENIORS: Dana Young, Linda Crocker, Mary Ann Enns

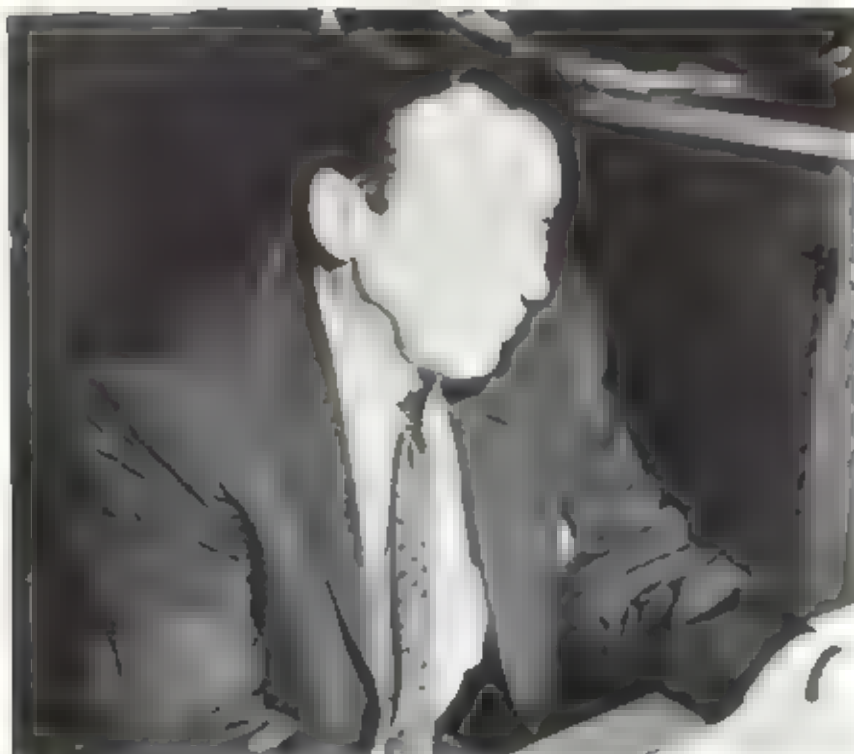

Figure 1. Schematic representation of the experimental design. The subjects were divided into two groups: a control group and an experimental group. The control group received a standard training program, while the experimental group received a training program with a focus on the specific skills required for the task. The results of the training program were compared between the two groups.

The 1967 Varsity Football team had one of the toughest schedules they have ever had. With Head Coach Lou Venditti the Lions won their first three ball games over Canton Lehman, St. Thomas Aquinas and Canton Timken. They then suffered four heart breaking defeats in a row. First Canton McKinley, then Steubenville Big Red, an upset followed by Steubenville Central Catholic, and finally Cuyahoga Falls.

The Lions jumped back in the winning circle by defeating Canton Central Catholic. With great odds against our boys, they finished the season by defeating a tough Barberton team, and upsetting Altoona Penn. The team ended the 1967 year with a 6-4 record.

Lincoln had 7 boys on the All-City squad while having 5 on All-County. Keith Best made first team All-State, while Dale Wernecke and Joe Predisk made honorable mention.

Lincoln High School Leadership

The Board of Education of the City of Lincoln is composed of dedicated citizens. These Civic-minded citizens spend untold hours reading the latest information in school management and weighing the recommendations of the Superintendent and his assistants for improvement of the school system.

Their progressive attitude is shown by the fact that they are interested in new innovation. Excellent examples of this forward movement are the "Campus Plan" and the educational liaison with Cal Columbia.

Personal glory means nothing to these individuals. Their satisfaction is derived from knowing that they are doing their utmost in providing each student with the best education to fit that student's individual needs and enable him to become a responsible citizen of our great nation.

The leadership provided by the Principal and Assistant Principal at Lincoln High School is most aptly described by the following excerpt which is taken from the report of the North Central Evaluation team which visited Lincoln this past year.

There appears to be excellent rapport between the faculty and administration. This rapport seems to be built upon mutual trust, a great measure of academic freedom, and a sincere interest in the student body. It was obvious to this committee that the school principal and his staff were in complete control of the educational program and all related facets. Much of the success of this administrative team is attributed to good communication and a close working relationship.

Andrew Kristy, Assistant Principal

Mr. Butler received her Bachelor's degree from Western College for Women. She received a B.A. in English and Latin. She later returned to the university to continue her studies in English but preferred full time teaching. Since coming to Lincoln he has taught English and grammar and directed his Mr. Butler has been the principal of F. A.

Although he works with his hands, her favorite form of relaxation is reading a good book. Her favorite book is "The State of Wisconsin and the People" by her father.

Through the years of teaching at Western College for Women, Mr. Butler has watched the school grow and change. But he does not feel he has changed her high standards. He will continue to strive to keep the school as it was when he first came to it.

When he is not a typewriter in the room Mr. Butler is always ready to help a student. He is always ready to help a student who is having trouble with her work.

If he has time for a hobby, it is playing new records to see if they are as good as the ones in a magazine. He likes her husband and his wife. What else?

Sophomores

The Sophomore class this year was an exciting one. The class party was held in February and the entire class participated in the Sports Prom held late in the spring.

Many of the Sophomore boys and girls participated in intramural sports during the year. The boys who participated in intramurals formed eight teams which played on Saturdays in the school gym.

During the year the Sophomores were well represented at all of the home games and many of them also attended the Jock Drag Dance after the games.

The Sophomore Home Rooms cleaned their home rooms throughout the school year collecting such items as soap, and toothpaste for the Apple Creek State Hospital and also filled boxes to be sent to the military in Viet Nam.

A cold, sunny afternoon is the setting for Lincoln Senior Leaders. Senior Class Officers and Booster Club Officers informal pictures. The Senior Leaders chosen on the basis of their leadership and activity in numerous clubs beam with shivering smiles in the wind about the Hall of Fame. The Senior Class Officers and Booster Club Officers stand at attention as their picture is snapped in an easterly wind at the McKinley Monument.

The Senior Class Officers are the victors of a campaign involving the Maroon and Gold parties with the Maroon coming out victorious.

Exchange Student to Denmark

Dee Dee Stacker, a 17 year old senior, spent her senior year as a Rotary Exchange Student at Sct. Kungsgymnasium in Odense, Denmark. Sct. Kungsgymnasium is a strictly educational school. It is not sports minded and the only extracurricular activities available are the school choir and a girl scout troop. During her stay in Odense, Dee Dee resided in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Schröder and family.

Since Dee Dee was a girl scout here, she also participated in girl scout activities in Denmark. From April 10-14, she attended a Girl Scout Jubilee in England which included participants from all over Europe. Her favorite hobby is knitting and she loves sports—especially basketball.

Dating habits at Sct. Kungsgymnasium are quite different from those here at Lincoln. Everything is different. Dee Dee left New York on August 5 and returned on May 15 to participate in the Junior-Senior Prom and graduation exercises.

Exchange Student from Columbia

Maria Perez, a 16 year old junior, spent the second semester of her junior year at Lincoln as an exchange student from Colegio Bolívar in Cali, Colombia. She lived in the home of the Robert Henke family during her semester stay in Canton.

In Cali, Maria's activities include swimming, golf, and horseback riding. She is a member of the country club and participates in its various activities on Saturday and Sunday. She is the assistant editor of her school's yearbook and a member of the basketball team.

Maria saw snow for the first time when she arrived at Aaron Canton Airport on January 25 and she loved it.

She especially liked the school schedule with assigned periods instead of study halls.

Maria will complete her stay in Canton on June 15 and on the way home she plans to stop in Miami for two weeks vacation.

A Timken® bearing never asks about your race, color, creed or national origin.

The quality of our products depends upon the ability of the men and women we employ

So it's no surprise that our employment policy is based only on your ability. Not on your place of birth, your religious faith, or the color of your skin

One of our vice presidents describes it this way: "We hire people." We also recruit people on college campuses, train people in apprenticeship programs, promote people to better, more responsible jobs.

Our long-standing policy has been clearly and simply stated and restated as follows

"The Timken Roller Bearing Company reaffirms its policy of treating all employees and applicants, whether or not they are members of minority groups, equally according to their individual qualifications, ability, experience and other employment standards."

It means we can select from all qualified job seekers, not just a chosen few. It gives us a larger labor market from which to pick.

And that's what we pick... the qualified. It takes qualified people, working under the best conditions, to make the best Timken® bearings, Timken steel and Timken rock bits.

The Timken Roller Bearing Company.

ALICE IN APPLIANCELAND...

You probably recall that at one point in her adventures in wonderland, Alice found she had to keep running faster and faster to stay in the same place. We know how she felt.

Over the years, dozens of companies have challenged the leadership of Hoover cleaners . . .

unsuccessfully. We've maintained our leadership through a constant program of product development and improvement for our cleaners, and for our many other products.

So, in effect, we keep running faster and faster to stay where we've always been . . . in first place.

It isn't easy, but it would be a lot tougher without the dedicated skills of all the men and women of The Hoover Company.

There were those feelings that no word spoken, no word written, no word contemplated can convey . . . a teacher who understood, a pair of appendages that acquired skills vital to the future, the feel of the unvarying feel of the aura

radiating from another
